

WISER (Women in Science and Engineering Roundtable) is proud to present:

4th Annual Women in STEMM Panel

Friday, January 27, 2017

Flora Stone Mather Center for Women
Living Room (#248)

12:45 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

This event is open to all students, staff, faculty, and community members

Co-Moderated by Maggie McClarren (WISER, President) & Mariana Sainz-Garcia (SHPE, Vice President)

Join us for a program that will address ways women and minorities can succeed in STEMM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics, and Medicine) and how we can all advocate for diversity and inclusion in STEMM! This event will feature a panel discussion, followed by a casual meet and greet where guests will have the chance to meet with panelists over lunch. The first 10 people to arrive will receive a free copy of the book, "Blindspot: Hidden Biases of Good People" by Mahzarin R. Banaji.

Attire is business casual. Lunch will be provided.

This event is made possible by the generous support of PPG Industries and is presented in collaboration with the Case School of Engineering, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Career Center, and the Flora Stone Mather Center for Women.

Please RSVP by January 20th at: <http://bit.ly/2hG9nGe>
