

Bridging the Divide in Polarized Societies

12th Annual International Conference on Conflict Resolution in Education

Community Innovation Network

JACK, JOSEPH AND MORTON MANDEL
SCHOOL OF APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCES

CASE WESTERN RESERVE
UNIVERSITY

Join 200+ educators, faculty, staff, and students from 6 countries at this 5-day conference May 22-26, 2018!

Early Bird Rates

Discounts before April 1

CWRU Alumni

Discounted admission

Email:

jxb807@case.edu

CWRU Employees

$70/day before April 1!

Email: jxb807@case.edu

CWRU Students

$35/day before April 1

Email: jxb807@case.edu

4 Pre-Conference Workshops

1. Dialogue Across Differences – Facilitator Training for Community Leaders (2-day)
2. Dialogues on Race: Inside Prison Walls and Outside in Communities (2-day)
3. Finding Your Place. Engaging Polarized Communities (1-day)
4. Building Opportunities through Civil Discourse (1-day)

40+ Conference Workshops

Conflict Management, Peacebuilding Pedagogy, Creating Campus Change through Dialogue, Depolarizing through Dialogue, Dismantling the School to Prison Pipeline, Human Rights Education Models, Intercultural Conflict Resolution, Overcoming Divisive Community Conflict, Transforming Patriarchy, Transitional Justice Mechanisms, Trauma and Conflict Resolution, Unity in Diversity, Urban Institutions and Surrounding Communities, Youth-led Changemaking and more!

Featuring Two Internationally Acclaimed Keynotes

Including 2018 Nobel Peace Prize Nominee, Search for Common Ground

Youth Bridging the Divide and Transforming Societies, Saji Prelis, Director for the Children & Youth Programs at Search for Common Ground, co-chair of the UN-Civil Society Working Group on Youth Peacebuilding. He is the winner of the Schengen Peace Foundation' and 'Luxembourg Peace Prize' for his preeminent efforts and initiatives to promote peace.

Is Deradicalization Even Possible? From Anger and Hatred to Compassion and Forgiveness, Tony McAleer, President, Executive Director, Life After Hate. Once deeply involved in the White Aryan Resistance, Tony McAleer is at the forefront of a group reaching out to turn fascists around.

2018 Conference Silver and Gold Sponsors Include: Mandel School for Applied Social Sciences (MSASS), Case Western Reserve University; Mershon Center for International Security Studies, The Ohio State University; Search for Common Ground; National Association for Community Mediation (NAFCM); Center for Civic Engagement and Learning, Case Western Reserve University; Earlham School of Religion; Essential Partners; Horizon Prison Institute; National Institute for Civil Discourse; Peace, Justice, Human Rights Program, John Carroll University; School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution, George Mason University.

For full list please see msass.case.edu/cre-2018

Visit msass.case.edu/cre-2018 or contact jxb807@case.edu to register!